BRUNCH

The Weekend's Star

When it comes to brunch, Greensboro delivers.

Chez Genèse, a charming French-inspired bistro, serves delicious dishes like avocado toast and crêpes. The bistro also champions inclusivity, hiring intellectually disabled adults. As local Jamie B. raves, "The space is beautiful and welcoming. The restaurant hires people with disabilities and is pretty accessible. The food is phenomenal! Everything is made fresh and delicious."

For a Mediterranean twist, try Green Valley Grill at the O.Henry Hotel, where you can feast on Mediterranean tapas, shaved beef benedict, or quiche. Prefer a southern brunch? Scrambled Southern Diner offers mouth-watering local fare like shrimp and grits and fried green tomatoes, sourced from North Carolina farms.

Enjoy French-inspired cuisine at Chez Genèse.

And for those who love a little craft beer with brunch, head to SouthEnd Brewing for maple porter brisket or sourdough French toast, paired perfectly with their brews.

Hidden Gems and Local Faves

LUNCH

From sandwiches to hearty meals, Greensboro's lunch scene has something for every craving. For a hidden gem, visit The Bodega, a quaint downtown convenience store that doubles as a lunch spot, offering flavorful sandwiches, salads, and wraps. Local foodie Patti W. swears by Giacomo's Italian Market, recommending, "fresh mozzarella, fresh ricotta, to die for tiramisu, stuffed meatball bread, killer Italian sub sandwiches, fresh pasta, meats and all things Italian."

Several people on Facebook recommended Banh Mi Saigon, which Jennifer D. says has the "best Vietnamese sandwiches, plates, spring rolls and teas!" Meanwhile, Mythos Grill serves up Greek classics, and Bandito Bodega offers mouth-watering Asian fusion tacos, either at their brick-and-mortar location or via their food truck, Bandito Burrito.

And for burger lovers, Hops Burger Bar is a must-visit, with juicy burgers and a "Wall of Fries" to satisfy any craving. For a fresh southern lunch, head to Lucky 32 Southern Kitchen, where dishes like Cheerwine chicken and black bean cakes will leave you craving more.

AFTERNOON TREATS

Ice Cream and Sweets

Need an afternoon pick-me-up? Greensboro's sweet spots won't disappoint. Yum Yum Better Ice Cream and Hot Dogs has been a local tradition since 1906, offering ice cream alongside their famous hot dogs. For farm-fresh ice cream, try Homeland Creamery, where you can choose from nearly two dozen flavors, perfect after a farm tour (reservations are required for the tour).

For a true hidden gem, check out Nazareth Bread Company. "The food and service make it a hidden gem," says Anita H., who says she drives an hour for the food. For a taste of Vietnam, locals love Pho Hien Vuong.

Pastabilities is another local favorite for its great prices, fresh food, and great service. Craving tacos? Crafted – The Art of the Taco takes tacos to new heights with their creative, globally-inspired combinations – perfect for adventurous eaters.

For an upscale experience, head to Print Works Bistro at the Proximity Hotel, where the menu offers modern and classical French dishes made with locally-sourced ingredients.

Greensboro's nightlife scene is expanding with something for every night owl. For a lively neighborhood hangout, check out Neighbors. "Such a great little neighborhood spot with excellent food and drinks, open late night! Menu changes seasonally and they're always rolling out fun new menu items that don't break the bank. One of the more affordable places to go," says Jennifer L.

If you're into craft beer, hit up Little Brother Brewing, Oden Brewing, or Joymongers for a great selection of local brews.

For a bit of retro fun, Boxcar Bar + Arcade is the place to go, offering more than 100 arcade games along with beer, cocktails, and pizza from their Ninja Turtle-themed pizzeria.

GREENSBORO'S NIGHTLIFE SCENE offers everything from craft brews and creative cocktails to nostalgic fun and laid-back lounges.

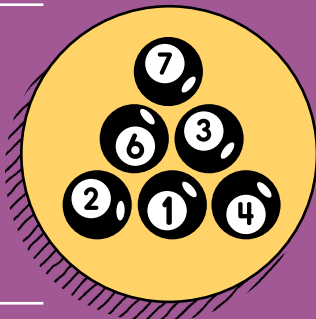

Lewis & Elm

Kick off your evening at the heart of Greensboro's craft beer culture — SouthEnd Brewing. With its lineup of local brews, delicious bites, and warm, rustic ambiance, it's the perfect starting point for a night out. Just steps away, Lewis & Elm brings a cozy yet lively vibe, with an elegant selection of wine, craft beer, and artisanal cheese boards that elevate any night into a memorable experience. Pair these two hotspots, and you're already steeped in the rich local flavor and charm that make Greensboro unique.

INNOVATION DRIVEN BY

HISTORY

WHEN YOU VISIT GREENSBORO,
you're stepping into a city where history drives innovation.
Founded in 1808, Greensboro played several crucial roles in shaping our country's history.

Local Victories

THAT SPARKED NATIONAL MOMENTUM

1700s

Greensboro's story starts before its statehood, as a pivotal point in the Revolutionary War. On March 15, 1781, Greensboro's namesake, Major-General Nathanael Greene, led 4,500 men in the Battle of Guilford Courthouse against British General Charles Lord Cornwallis and his 2,100 soldiers. While Cornwallis and his troops ultimately won that battle, they suffered significant losses, eventually leading to the British surrender and the end of the Revolutionary War.

DID YOU KNOW?

GUILFORD COURTHOUSE NATIONAL MILITARY PARK is the country's first Revolutionary War site established as a national park.

1800s

Greensboro earned the nickname The Gate City from its role as a transportation hub in the late 19th Century. The city served as a central point for railroad connections, with many trains passing through daily, making Greensboro a gateway to the South and West, and an important hub for trade, travel, and economic development.

THE BLANDWOOD MUSEUM is America's oldest Italianate-style house and museum, designed in 1844.

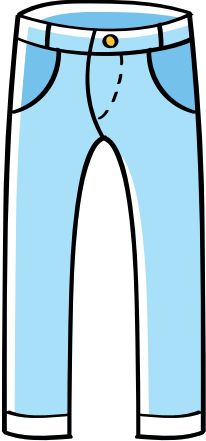

DID YOU KNOW?

GREENSBORO was once the denim capital of the world.

A second Greensboro nickname, Jeansboro, comes from its role as the former denim capital of the world, thanks to Moses and Ceasar Cone. The brothers founded Cone Mills, which became the largest supplier of denim to brands including Levi's. Greensboro's dedication to quality craftsmanship transformed it into a hub for textile innovation, making the city synonymous with durable, stylish denim that became a staple worldwide.

"Jeansboro"

1900s

Another of Greensboro's major roles in US history comes from the Civil Rights Movement. On February 1, 1960, four black North Carolina A&T State University students staged a sit-in at the F.W. Woolworth's lunch counter, a peaceful protest that helped spark the modern Civil Rights Movement. The International Civil Rights Center & Museum opened on the 50th anniversary of that sit-in.

DID YOU KNOW?

THE HISTORIC MAGNOLIA HOUSE housed some of the nation's most well-known African Americans during segregation, and is one of the few NC Green Book sites still in operation.

2000s

Today, you can explore these and other historical milestones that honor the past while reimagining it for the modern era.

PROVIDING A RANGE OF ENTERTAINMENT

The Steven Tanger Center for the Performing Arts opened in 2021 and has welcomed nearly 1.1 million guests. It's a great spot for Broadway shows, concerts, the Guilford College Bryan Series, Greensboro Symphony Orchestra performances, comedy acts, and family-friendly entertainment.

DID YOU KNOW?

FIRST HORIZON COLISEUM'S

record-setting concert was Phish in 2003, with the Backstreet Boys bringing in the next largest crowd in 2000.

The 22,000-seat First Horizon Coliseum (formerly the Greensboro Coliseum) ranks among the largest arenas in the US. It has hosted legends like Paul McCartney, Garth Brooks, and Elvis Presley. Today's biggest stars, including Drake, Beyoncé, Bad Bunny, and Taylor Swift have also taken the stage at the Coliseum. Other venues within the Greensboro Complex cater to more intimate concerts, art shows, and other events.

Take a step back in time at the historic Carolina Theatre. It opened Halloween night in 1927 as "The Showplace of the Carolinas." This iconic theater was considered the finest between Washington, D.C., and Atlanta. Today, it's home to beloved performances like the Community Theatre of Greensboro's annual Wizard of Oz production, the Greensboro Ballet's Nutcracker, and classic film screenings.
